

Submission Re Glass Stegel

It is important to have a secure banking system, it is important to have all Australian bank deposits secure, guaranteed by the Australian Government. It is also important to have a National Savings Bank System such as Glass Stegel where peoples deposits can be used to finance economic development within this Australian Nation, be it agriculture, industry, infrastructure or R&D. Peoples savings, superannuation has to be secure, it should not be there to be used for speculation.