Dear Sir,

To the Financial System Inquiry
I have no hesitation in the matter concerning new "bail in" laws, as against proposed "Glass Steagall laws". The very idea of criminal behaviour in high places, why ever did they goot Al Capone & such like the only difference is, he wasnt polished enough to hide his activities. Nonetheless most people are still aware.

I am right against bail-in legislation becoming law.

All in favour of Glass Steagall laws immediately, as is the right of the people

Sincerely

Val Bussenecht
