Re: Proposed Currency (Restrictions on the Use of Cash) Bill 2019 legislation

Dear Sir/Madam

I object to any law that seeks to remove my right I to use cash for my day-to-day financial transactions. Further, IT IS MY WILL and I require the Parliament restore confidence in the economic system by properly reforming the financial system to ensure cash is always available to every Australian to use in their day-to-day financial exchanges. Refusal to do will only be regarded by myself and very likely by many others, as being the parliaments intent to trap people in a system that reduces their rights, privacy and options. It will also be regarded as parliaments intent to place all Australian's in a position where they bear the full brunt of bail-in laws which the parliaments have set up to trap Australians into, and also with the possibility of negative interest rates, this whole situation is tantamount to theft of Australian's wealth by the banking system.

Thank you.

Sincerely,

Anne Attard-Barbato
