Dear Sir/Madam,

I write regarding the proposed Currency (Restrictions on the Use of Cash) Bill 2019.

I note that this incomplete bill appears to ban ALL cash transactions over $10,000.

What is the purpose or intent of 'Division 2'?

Whilst noting the exemptions publicized by the Govt. they are not evident in the bill!
They appear to be in a separate legislative instrument to be issued once the bill is passed. (Referred to in Section 10 (5) and 11 (3))

That means the exemptions can be scrapped at any time at the whim of the Minister.

I respectfully submit that the exemptions should be within the Act, so that Parliament will be the final arbiter if any exemptions need to be changed, added or dropped. If the exemptions that have been specified by the Minister are not placed in the bill I am against this bill going forward.

Yours faithfully,
