Australian Treasury
RE: Exposure Draft – Currency (Restrictions on the use of cash) Bill 2019

To whom it may concern

I strongly object to this law as we live in a free society with free trading laws. We have the right to be able to trade with other citizens of this country in our own currency without government monitoring and restrictions.

I also believe it will be interconnected with the bail-in legislation and just like the new terrorism laws that have been passed these will be misused by the government as recently being shown with the investigation of the media.

Yours Faithfully

David Nelson
